

Information about the JASSO Scholarship

Outline of the Program

Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) offers scholarships under the "Student Exchange Support Program (Scholarship for Short-Term Study in Japan)" each year.

These scholarships are available for qualified students accepted by Japanese universities or graduate schools under the student exchange agreement on a short-term basis up to one year.

Objective

The Program is intended to promote international student exchange between Japanese and foreign universities; thereby mutually enhancing the quality of educational and scholastic activities while promoting mutual understanding and friendship between countries.
